

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. The number of phone calls I now receive has been reduced by 99%. If anything, we should increase the protection to include political campaign unsolicited phone calls and unsolicited fax attempts.